Project Team

• Historic Resources Group
  • Christine Lazzaretto
  • Molly Iker-Johnson
• Greenwood and Associates
  • John Foster
• Carlberg Associates
  • Cy Carlberg
Scope of Work: Overview

• Phase I: Historic Context Statement
• Phase II: Preparation of a Historic Preservation Ordinance
• Phase III: Historic Resources Survey
• Phase IV: Develop Historic Preservation Outreach Programs
What is a Historic Context Statement?

- Framework for evaluating a property for potential historic significance
- Places built resources in the appropriate historic, social, and architectural context
- Not intended to be a comprehensive history
- Highlight trends and patterns critical to the understanding of the built environment
Historic Context Statement: Scope

- All periods of development (c. 1785-1969)
- Historical Trends & Patterns of Development
- All property types
Mexican Independence & the Rancho Period

GOLETA HISTORY.COM
Late 19th/Early 20th Century Development
Goleta Between the Wars
Goleta During World War II
Post-World War II Development
Architecture and Design
Historic Context Statement Updates
Next Steps

• Short term
  • Review Historic Trees Study
  • Public Tree Advisory Committee will review at upcoming meeting
  • Review Prehistoric/Archaeological Resources Context Statement
  • Provide comments by December 6
Next Steps

• Long term
  • City Council review of complete Historic Context Statement
  • Development of Preservation Ordinance

Documents and information regarding the Historic Preservation project can be found at: http://www.cityofgoleta.org/projects-programs/historic-preservation